BUFFALO, N.Y. (WIVB) - Local mothers received special treatment from their children, Friday morning.

A mother's day brunch was held at the Belle Center, on Maryland Street in Buffalo.

The moms News 4 talked to seemed to appreciate it.

Angelia Casiano said, "I feel like it brings my daughter and me a little closer, spending time together. Hopefully she'll learn from this, how to be a good mommy like me."

Melissa Tiburzi said, "This breakfast means a lot to us because we usually have to have our babies in day care while we're working, but today we get to have some quality one on one time instead of picking them up and dropping them off on a day to day basis."

Preschool age kids attending the early childhood care center gave their moms a special potted plant and a card.
