

This summer I will embark upon a five month, 2,663 hike of the PCT in support of the amazing work done at The Belle Center in Buffalo, NY.

This summer I will embark upon a five month, 2,663 mile hike of the Pacific Crest Trail, traversing the states of California, Oregon, and Washington from the Mexican border to the Canadian border. While I am an avid backpacker, this hike will not simply be a leisure experience. Rather I am doing this hike to raise money for The Belle Center in my hometown of Buffalo, NY.

As someone who works in the field of youth development, I know a quality youth-serving agency when I see one. The programs for children and youth at The Belle Center are some of the most comprehensive and innovative in the entire City of Buffalo. In these tough economic times, more and more non-profit organizations are competing for fewer and fewer funding sources. For this reason, it's imperative that we support quality programs like those offered at The Belle Center. I hope together we can raise $2,663 in support of The Belle Center - a dollar for every mile I'll walk. I hope I can count on you to make this possible. Thank you!
