Noslyn Andino, 16, left, talks to Aldrumesia Baker, center, and Kendra Farrakhan, right, and other first-year Bonner Scholars from Oberlin College during a workshop Monday titled "Journey to College" in the Belle Center. The Bonner Scholars Program is a four-year community service scholarship program endowed by the Corella and Bertram F. Bonner Foundation. The group from Oberlin is in Buffalo for three days of community service and to encourage girls to take advantage of the opportunity of a higher education.
